

Health & Safety Officer

The role will be based at Carey Glass, Limerick Road, Nenagh, Co.Tipperary however travel to multiple site locations may be required at intervals.

Qualifications:

- Min University Degree Level 8( H&S /EHS studies ) desirable
- Minimum 2-3 years' experience in a manufacturing/Production Environment

Essential skills:

- Implementation, supervision and development of programs for protection of the environment, health and safety at work
- Development, implementation and execution of comprehensive site strategies to ensure a safe workplace while ensuring compliance and minimizing liability.
- Engaging with and influencing the Senior Leadership Team
- Compliance with local and Global Health, Safety and Environmental regulations, standards and policies, including the maintenance of a legal register for the site and communication of legislative changes
- Conduct site observations for safety compliance and behavior based inspections
- Management of the site incident investigation program, including training and guidance to relevant personnel, completing quality reviews and promoting near incident reporting
- Completion of analysis of health and safety statistical data
- Assessing detailed instructions regarding health and safety at individual workplaces
- Management of the risk assessment program on site, including participation in evaluation of occupational risk assessments where necessary
- Conduct general safety training and periodic training for employees
- Integration with Group IMS Management Systems (OSAS;EMS and EHS)
- Participation in site/machinery modernization process
- Flexible in working hours to accommodate shift cycles and multiple site locations

- Excellent Leadership skills
- Computer literacy
- Organisational skills
- Keeping records, completing and storing HSE documents
- Enable and Drive Change
- Be able to strive and create a culture of can-do attitude.
- Fluency in speaking, comprehending, reading and writing English is required

Salary is negotiable depending on experience.